

which shall come into his hands. If the marshal fails to file such bond, it shall then be competent and become the duty of the board of aldermen to elect a tax collector, who shall file bond in double the amount of the taxes, to be approved by the board of aldermen and probated and registered as provided for bond of marshal and clerk.

No officer to contract for town work.

SEC. 24. That no mayor or alderman or other officer of the town government directly or indirectly become a contractor for work to be done by the town, and any person herein offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor.

Prevention of live stock from running at large.

SEC. 25. That the aldermen shall have full power to prevent cattle, horses, dogs, and other brutes from roaming at large in the town, either in the day or night time.

Public buildings.

SEC. 26. The aldermen may establish all public buildings necessary for the town, and may prohibit the erection or establishment of wooden buildings in any part of the town where they may increase the danger by fire.

Wooden buildings.

Cemetery.

SEC. 27. The aldermen shall by ordinance regulate and govern the cemetery included within the corporate limits of the town, and it shall be their duty to lay off the unoccupied portion of said ground into suitable lots, with walks and drives laid out to the best advantage, not interfering with the graves already in said graveyard, and may by ordinance prohibit the digging of a grave or burial in any other place than that allotted for graves.

Prevention of contagious diseases, &c.

SEC. 28. The aldermen may take such measures as they may deem necessary to prevent the introduction and spread of contagious or infectious disease, to establish hospitals and to remove to such hospitals any person suspected of having such disease, and provide for the nursing and medical attention of such person at his expense, which may be recovered before any court having jurisdiction.

Hospitals.

Powers, &c., of marshal and policemen.

SEC. 29. That in making arrests the marshal or policeman shall be governed by the regulations provided for, and clothed with the powers conferred upon its officers by the State statute.